

Nieuwegein, 08-03-
2022

Cardiac Ultrasound HCM screening form

Patient information:

Name: FI*Ziazan La Nouba
Bidhdate (dd-mm-yyyy): 25-10-2020
Breed: Siberian
Sex: female
Weight: 4.39 kg
Transpondemr.: 985113003333566
Pedigree nr.: SIB n 09 22

Ownefls information:

Name: Smaling

Physical examination:

BCS 5/9, no murmur, regular heartbeat, frequency 140/min.

Echografic findings:

Equipment used: LOGIQ S8-Vet, with a cardiac transducer, frequency 3.6-10 Mhz (S4-IO) and a cardiac transducer, frequency 2.5-7.0 Mhz (S6).

No indications for congenital heart disease or cardiomyopathy at the moment.

Conclusion:

In the cat described above, no signs for the presence of hypertrophic cardiomyopathy (HCM) were present. Follow-up/recheck is advised.

Veterinarian:

M.L. den Toom
DVM, EBVS Specialist in small animal cardiology
Evidensia Dierenziekenhuis Nieuwegein

Signature:

